THE REGION

It was in Douro river's valley scarps that one of the world oldest Denomination of Origin was born, marked and legislated in 1756 for direct influence of the Marquis of Pombal. These scarps, decorated with vines singularly disposed in terraces and platforms, confer to the region a unique landscape, classified Worldwide Heritage in 2001 by UNESCO. Although particularly difficult to work, these soils are excellent for the longevity of the vines, and they contribute immensely to the concentration of wine.

WINEMAKING

Fermentation in stainless steel tanks, followed by 9 months of ageing in French oak barrels.

TASTING NOTES

A wine with a deep, opaque garnet colour. Floral notes stand out alongside an elegant fruit profile. A Douro with silky tannins and strong personality, finishing with a long, persistent aftertaste.
