THE REGION

Casa das Gaeiras, located in Óbidos, stands out for its tradition and typicality of old wines. From the garden to the house, many marks are representative of the 18th century. On this label, we illustrate one of them: the heraldic symbols present on the walls of the noble hall.

WINEMAKING

Fermentation in stainless steel tanks, followed by a 6-month ageing period in new French oak barrels.

TASTING NOTES

Intense ruby red colour, with deep and complex aromas that bring out red fruit, balsamic hints and dried tobacco leaf notes. On the palate, the tannins are striking, showing great quality and excellent integration with the wine's elegant acidity. The finish is long, with remarkable depth and complexity.
